To all fraternal SolidNet Parties

It has come to our attention that Bob Briton, former General Secretary of the Communist Party of Australia who resigned from the CPA on 21st March 2019 with a handful of members has contacted a number of fraternal Parties with an invitation to attend the foundational Congress of the so called Australian Communist Party, ACP at the end of June in Sydney.

This has created confusion among some of the parties with whom the CPA has historic fraternal relations. A number of Parties have written to us asking for clarification after being contacted by Bob Briton on behalf of his splinter group.

Please be aware that the Communist Party of Australia remains united around its new leadership led by comrade Andrew Irving. We felt it necessary to clear up the confusion this has created and to clarify the situation for all our fraternal Parties.

In solidarity,

Vinnie Molina
Party President, CPA
